

The Angler's Frequently Asked Questions

- How many FTE's are there? Is there any contract labor?

- 116 FTEs, contract labor is detailed in the Rooms department

- Are there any shared positions?

Area Director of Operations	2.05%
Area Director of Finance	8.80%
Area Director of People and Culture	14.10%
Area Coordinator of People and Culture	58%
Area Directors of Sales & Marketing	5.03%
Senior Area Director of Revenue	11.79%
Area Director of Revenue	42%
Area Revenue Manager	31.88%

- Is laundry done in-house or outsourced?

- Outsourced

- How many elevators are on property?

- Two in new tower, one in each of the Loft, Historic Angler's and Pool Bungalows.

- What is the average length of stay?

- 2024 – 2.4 days

- What is the breakdown between rooms with PTACs?

- There are no PTACs onsite. All rooms have central air.

- Does the hotel pay a beach service partner?

- No, the hotel no longer has an agreement with any beach services partners.

- How is insurance currently handled?

- The hotel is under KHP's umbrella policy.
- Please reach out to Fausto Alvarez for guidance on new insurance pricing which is expected to be greatly reduced.

Fausto Alvarez, Jr.

Individual CA License #0K84568

CIC

Executive Vice President

FL License # A004991

Fausto.Alvarez@bbrown.com

O (305) 714-4400 | D (305) 714-4515

Brown & Brown Insurance Services, Inc.

- How does parking work? Where is parking revenue captured?

- Per the Parking Agreement, VPNE will pay the hotel $175 per space per month for the 44 accessible spaces commencing on June 15, 2024, through June 14, 2026, coded to the Commissions line under Miscellaneous Income

- What does the resort fee cover and what is its history?
 - $35 in 2023, was raised to $37 in January 2024, and up to $39 in the Spring this year.
- What is the size of the retail/meeting space?
 - 2,462 SF – currently awaiting install of a new A/C unit and it will be available to sell for meetings and events.
- Where are the Kimpton fees coded in the P&L?
 - Kimpton Fees fall into the Corporate Office Reimbursables Line on the Rooms, A&G, S&M, and IT tabs. And Loyalty Programs under S&M?
- How many group room nights does the hotel do on average?
 - 9.7%
- How many redemption room nights does the hotel do on average?
 - 4,200 per year
- What are the roof ages?
 - New Tower – 2018
 - Lofts – 2016
 - Pool Bungalows – 2018
 - Historic Angler's – 2016
 - Villas - 2018
- How is F&B handled between Georgios and the hotel for meetings and events?
 - Georgios is primarily responsible for the sale, service, and execution of banquet and catering events. However, the hotel's sales team still handles group room blocks and associated events. Georgios must coordinate closely with the hotel team throughout the process. The hotel's Director of Sales and Marketing sets standards for catering timelines, booking priorities, and approvals for any exceptions
- Does the hotel do room service? Does Georgios manage that?
 - Georgios provides room service during the operating hours of the F&B venues. They are responsible for preparing food and beverages, while the hotel operator handles delivery to guest rooms.
- How is F&B treated in the P&L? (i.e. reimbursement to F&B Venues?)

F&B revenue is treated as follows in the P&L:

 - Guest Charges: F&B charges (e.g., room service, group banquets) billed to guest rooms are collected by the hotel and reimbursed to Georgios every two weeks.
 - Reimbursements: The hotel pays Georgios for guest charges, house account meals, and vouchers, minus a 3% admin fee on house account and voucher charges.
 - Group Events: For group charges over $1,500, the hotel reimburses Georgios within two business days of collection
- Where are spa services billed to?
 - Contract Services

- Where are F45 classes reimbursed?
 - Contract Services
- What is the Other Management Fee? $76,000 in 2024.
 - This is a direct payment to Kimpton management to compensate for the fact that ownership decided to hire a third-party operator. It would not apply to a future owner.
- Under Non-Operating Expenses, what is ~$13,000 of Rent/Other Property & Equipment
 - printers, cintas machines, commercial mats, filtered water dispensers
- How long was the hotel closed when it was being renovated prior to the new tower opening?
 - Construction on the tower began in December 2014. The tower opened in May 2018. In April 2019 half of the original Angler's rooms came back online. By October 2019, the hotel was fully reopened.
- Are there any additional development rights remaining?
 - No
- Are there any noise or operating hour restrictions on the rooftop?
 - The hotel is applying for a conditional use permit. They pull special event permits for large events. Day-to-day operations are not typically an issue.
- Are all buildings on site sprinklered / Which buildings are not sprinklered?
 - Yes, all buildings are sprinklered.
- Can you provide 5 years of loss runs?
 - There have been no losses in the last five years.
- What are the deductibles for the hotel?
 - All perils carry $100,000 deductible.
- Are the older buildings on any historic registry?
 - The Historic Angler's and the Villas buildings are protected by the city of Miami Beach Historic Preservation Board.
- Is there a sump pump installed in the basement?
 - Yes, in the garage of the new tower
- The four original Angler's buildings were closed and fully renovated at the same time the new tower was constructed. Details on the scope of the renovation are below. Additionally, the two historic buildings have completed their 40 year recertification and ownership is waiting on their final letter from the city.
 - Replaced flooring system on first floor
 - Added mechanical ventilation system in crawlspace
 - Floor joists were replaced
 - Upgraded all MEP systems

- Demo and replaced 2nd and 3rd floor corridors, added structural steel for reinforcement
- Demo and rebuilt ground floor units
- Demo and rebuilt kitchen, expanded kitchen to include walk-ins
- Rebuilt the bar in the El Patio restaurant